Bob's Favorite Birthday Party Game!

Directions:

- Participants stand in one straight line.The birthday boy or girl is the first person it.
- Give the person who is it, a stuffed dog or other object.
- The person who has the animal takes three steps forward. No turning around.
- A leader picks one of the participants out to hide somewhere close-by.
- The Group says "Bob, Bob, turn around! Look, Look, Look who can't be found?"
- The person who is it, turns around and gets three tries to guess the name of the person who is missing.
- Name tags are a good idea if the kids don't know each other well.
- The players should stay in the same spot throughout the game.
- Do not stress the saying of the names correctly just do three tries and allow pointing.
- Leaders can feel free to give clues on the second or third try.Example: Her name starts with the B sound, or she is wearing blue, Whisper this to the player who is guessing.
- For three and four year olds you can change the words of the game to the following:
- Bob, Bob, turn around, Look, Look, Look, Who has the bone? Give one person in the line a bone whomever gets the bone hides it behind his back. or substitute a stuffed animal and say the name of whatever you give the child in line. (Example-Bob, Bob turn around, Look, Look, Look, who has the cat?)
- The Person who is it turns around and gets three guesses of who has the object.
- The person who has the "cat" or whatever you use, is the next person who is it next.
